

Power Industry ADS Fiber Optic Cable

Overview

All Dielectric Self-Supporting, (ADSS) Cable is one of the most efficient overhead fiber optic communication systems and high-performance aerial applications installed on power transmission and distribution lines. As the name of the cable indicates, it is an all-dielectric cable. All Dielectric Self-Supporting, (ADSS) Cable is one of the most efficient overhead fiber optic communication systems and high-performance aerial applications installed on power transmission and distribution lines. As the name of the cable indicates, it is an all-dielectric cable. All-dielectric self-supporting (ADSS) cable is a type of optical fiber cable that is strong enough to support itself between structures without using conductive metal elements. It is used by electrical utility companies as a communications medium, installed along existing overhead transmission. ADSS (All-Dielectric Self-Supported) is a kind of fiber optic cable that does not include any metal components for support, unlike conventional optics that need a separate messenger wire. The result is that they can be hung in a straight line between poles or towers with no additional metallic. ADSS cable, composed of dielectric optical fibers, is installed on overhead power lines and telecommunication poles., steel wires, copper conductors) in its construction. Unlike traditional fiber cables that rely on messenger wires or steel reinforcement, ADSS cables are fully dielectric, making them ideal for.
